

Kriegsgefangenenpost 19441002_Eva

Kriegsgefangenenlager

Datum:

October 2. 44

Dear Miss Cooper, Many thanks for your most welcome letter, pleased to hear you are all very well and happy. I'm enjoying the best of health. Give my best wishes to all at home, I hope to be home with you all for the coming Easter, best wishes, Henry.

To: 'Miss' Eva Cooper.

See Eva Coopers National Registration Identity Card ^[1]

"It has been a sacrifice I would most gladly make again sooner than any I love have to go and give their life and their blood, and to know that at least the ones we love so dear can enjoy life and freedom in a country that is so proud and just." October 6th 1945. J. H. Hallam

Source URL: <http://stalag-viiiib.com/content/kriegsgefangenenpost-19441002eva>

Links:

[1] <http://stalag-viiiib.com/node/607>